

MADISON P. KOSTOSS

Brooklyn, NY

Maddiepkost@gmail.com

Madison Kostoss is a multidisciplinary artist from the small town of Wilmington, New York located in the heart of the Adirondack mountains. Developing her work through exploring different mediums, styles, and themes, Madison focuses on conveying nuances of the human experience through an anthropological and artistic lense. Her body of work is centered around advocacy, interconnectedness, and play. In the Spring of 2025, she earned her BA in Art and Art History and Anthropology from St Lawrence University. Since then, Madison has exhibited her work in multiple galleries across the North Country as well as in Brooklyn and Manhattan.

BORN

2003 Plattsburgh, NY

LIVES AND WORKS

Brooklyn, NY

EDUCATION

2025 BA, Art and Art History, St. Lawrence University
Anthropology double major

ADDITIONAL STUDY

2024 Independent research project at Radika's Pottery in Chaguanas, Trinidad and Tobago while studying abroad at the University of the West Indies

2024 Studio Assistant for Jennifer Bauser in Saranac Lake, NY, Baus Studios

2025 Awarded scholarship to and participated in the 9th annual National Organization for Arts and Health conference, Mannhattan, NY

GROUP EXHIBITIONS

- 2025 SYE Midsemester Exhibition, St. Lawrence Univeristy,
THIS ALREADY HAPPENED, R. F. Brush Gallery, Canton, NY
- 2025 Upcoming Artist Exhibition, East Branch Friends of the Arts,
Divergent Spectrums III, Keene Arts, Keene, NY
- 2025 Group Show, Art groove, SoHo, Manhattan, NY
- 2025 Group Show, A Vent Space, Greenpoint Gallery, Brooklyn, NY
- 2026 Juried Exhibition, Arts Center Lake Placid, The Self-Portrait, The Annex, Lake Placid, NY

AWARDS AND HONORS

- 2021 Recieved Arts Award from Northwood School in Lake Placid, NY
- 2025 Inducted into the St Lawrence University Art and Art History
Honorary Society